

The Price Indices for September 2013

Consumer Price Indices (CPI)

The CPI in September 2013 (2011=100) advanced 1.31% from the preceding month, mainly because the invasion of consecutive typhoons and the need of Moon Festival pushed prices of vegetables and fruits rising 39.23% and 8.33% respectively. In addition, prices of fuels and lubricants rose 2.12% while garments prices decreased 1.49% for promotion and entertainment expenses went down 0.57% after summer vacation. The general CPI excluding fruits, vegetables, and energy, i.e. core CPI, increased 0.06%.

The annual change of CPI in September 2013 compared with the same month of previous year was 0.83%, mainly because prices of vegetables went up 27.93%. However, transportation and communication charges and prices of consumer electronics products declined, and prices of fruits, eggs, and fuels and lubricants stayed relatively low to buffer some percentages of raise. The core CPI advanced 0.63%.

Wholesale Price Indices (WPI)

The WPI in September 2013 decreased 0.02% from the preceding month, mainly because prices of machinery and equipment, and electronic parts and components went down 1.01%, and 0.69% respectively, but prices of farm products, petroleum and coal products, and crude petroleum and natural gas moved up to offset the decline.

The annual change of WPI in September 2013 compared with the same month of 2012 decreased 2.69%, mainly because prices of basic metals, machinery and equipment, and petroleum and coal products went down 6.15%, 5.75% and 4.50% orderly, while prices of miscellaneous products advanced 3.82%. The WPI for domestic sales excluding imports decreased 0.92%, import price index moved down 4.73% and export price index fell 2.21%.
